DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is narrative and not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The following title is suggested: Paintball gun barrel modification.

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

- The description of the drawings should be "brief" and in accordance with MPEP 608.01(f). The subject matter following the first sentence of each description should appear in the Detailed Description portion of the specification. Also, a Figure number should precede each description. For example: Fig. 1 shows an isometric view of a first embodiment. Applicant should refer to the patents cited on form PTO-892.
 - The Field of Invention should end at the first paragraph on page 1. The Discussion of Prior Art should begin with paragraph 2.
- Appropriate correction is required.

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference characters "12" and "15" have both been used to designate cover (see page 5). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Art Unit: 3641

Claim Objections

4. Claims 1-4 objected to because of the following informalities: Each claim should be written as a single sentence and be preceded by a claim number followed by a period. Applicant should refer to the patents cited on form PTO-892. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 1-4 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The specification does not disclose how or in what manner the shape of the openings in the barrel are "sized to accommodate the purging of the paintball skin and contents from a ruptured paintball like projectile."

7. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Specifically, the specification does not disclose how or in what manner the mechanism operates to "reduce the sound levels."

8. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

9. Claims 1-4 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

10. Claims 1 recites the limitation "the paintball" in. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

11. Claim 2 recites the limitation "the bore". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

12. Claims 1-4 rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

The claim(s) are narrative in form and replete with indefinite and functional or operational language. The structure that goes to make up the device must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device. The claim(s) must be in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

13. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

14. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. 6295752 issued to Havlock. As the claims can best be understood in view of the rejections above, Havlock discloses a barrel with a plurality of openings for accommodating the purging of a ruptured paintball.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

15. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

16. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Havlock in view of US 2003005614 issued to Cossio. Havlock discloses a gun barrel with a plurality of openings as discussed above. However, Havlock does not appear to disclose the cover. Cossio discloses a cover for a paintball gun barrel. At the time of the invention, one of ordinary skill in the art would have found it obvious to provide the barrel of Havlock with the cover of Cossio. The suggestion/motivation for doing so would have been to cover the end of the barrel and protect it from insects and the outside environment. The cover inherently acts to reduce noise and allow for the accumulation of paintball skin and contents.

Conclusion

17. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art cited on form PTO-892 are cited as of interest to show similar gun barrels.
